FEBRUARY-MARCH

1952

APRIL ? ? ?

Really, folks—my face is red. The date-line reads FEBRUARY-MARCH and here it is APRIL. The big Auction Catalogue took up a lot of time usually devoted to preparing the monthly. Same time ago I started practising left handed writing at the same time that I was scribbling with my right. Well, I haven't mastered it yet. If I ever learn that trick, by gash, we'll get back on schedule.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION CATALOG. SALE MAY 2-3-4

Chadwick Sells Gold Collection

The long awaited Auction Catalogue for the Joint Convention of the Central States and Ohio State Numismatic Societies has been released to all collectors on our regular mailing list. The 1883 lots feature the outstanding collection of U. S. Gold Coins formed by Mr. I. E. Chadwick of Los Angeles and includes representative offerings in most U. S. Series, as well as Foreign and Ancient gold, silver, and bronze coins.

United States Paper Money, one of the hottest items on the Numismatic horizon, is well represented by over 400 lots.

The first part of the Auction will be a public sale, starting at 7:30 P.M. on Friday, May 2nd, at the Hotel Sinton in Cincinnati, Ohio and will start off with the rare 1856 flying eagle cent from the Dr. C. A. Darnell Collection. Gold dollars, Quarter Eagles and Eagles from the Chadwick collection will also be sold during this session.

On Saturday, May 3rd, at 1:30 P.M., the Second Public Session will offer the Large Cents from the Darnell Collection and the Half Eagles and Double Eagles from the Chadwick Cabinet. Splendid Foreign Gold and U. S. Territorial Gold will include ten ducat pieces of Austria, Hungary and Paland, English 5 Guineas; and in the Territorial Series—Clark Gruber $20.00 with view of Pikes Peak, $50.00 Gold Slugs of Augustus Humbert, Baldwin Eagle, Dunbar Half Eagle, etc.

A $4.00 Stella in Brilliant Proof condition, rare $3.00 pieces and other coins will be sold this day.

Finally, the third part of the Catalogue starting with lot numbers 1129 offers a great variety of material. These coins will not be sold at Public Sale but rather to bids received by mail or handed to Mr. Kasaff, who will conduct the Auction at the Hotel Sinton. Those in attendance may bid on the last section by entering their bids on a BID SHEET which they will find in their copy of the Auction Catalogue. Ancient Coins, various U. S. Coins, foreign silver, medals, quarter eagles, eagles and finally the over 400 lots of large size U. S. Paper Currency—these make up the third part of the sale. Commemorative half dollars are offered in each of the three parts.

Collectors who cannot attend the sale in person, may bid on any of the lots in all three parts by sending their BID SHEET. Bids are carefully entered and each bidder is protected just as though he were at the sale. Lots will be purchased below actual bids whenever competition will permit. Testimony to this statement is offered elsewhere in this issue.

An important sale of this kind results in an accurate gauge of market conditions. You will want to keep abreast of price trends and can do so simply by ordering a list of prices realized. Just check your BID SHEET. Your copy will be mailed to you as soon after the sale as possible.

If you have not yet received your copy of this Auction Catalogue, write for one today.

• U. S. PATTERNS

(Here is a truly fascinating series which is being incorporated into the regular series by many specializing collectors. For example, a collector seeking dimes is acquiring the patterns of the dimes and thus adds immeasurably to the interest and value of his collection. It affords a greater variety of design and injects into the series an interesting background not supplied by the coins alone. If you are a half-dollar specialist, this series offers many inexpensive varieties to enrich your particular pursuit. The same is true for cents, quarters, etc. Even gold coin experts are eligible—they'll find the $5 or $10 or $20 gold pieces, brilliant proof, are considerably less expensive (though many times as rare) struck in copper or aluminum than are their gold counterparts.

Let us make a suggestion. Select a few, examine them alongside your regular coins. If the bell doesn't ring—send them back, no obligation. What have you to lose? Try it, today! Reference Numbers are to Adams-Woodin. A few original copies are available at the Gallery at $10.00. Reprints at $4.00. See our December 1951 and January 1952 issues for earlier listings).

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

The Gallery offers a once-in-a-life-time opportunity to the right party. We seek an assistant for our Numismatic Department.

Qualifications: General numismatic background, reasonable knowledge of market values, pleasing personality.

Write stating age, dependents, numismatic background, business experience, education (languages if any), present occupation. Enclose photo.

Unlimited possibilities for the right party.

OUR ANTIQUE DEPARTMENT

Our Antique Department, under Abner Kreisberg's supervision, has been flourishing. In response to inquiries from our coin collecting friends, we are listing some other items for their consideration. Guns, Ivories, bric-a-brac of various types. These are offered in this issue of the Monthly and if the response warrants continuation of the practice, similar offerings will be made from time to time. Shipping charges extra on Antique department item.

SURPRISE VISIT from the Judds, a very pleasant one, indeed. Also enjoyed having the Stewart Bingham and Joe Steele drop in.

HARRY BOOSEL heads big Chicogo Coin Club, with Jim Curtis his V. P.

MRS. SHEPARD POND again Secy. at Boston Num. Soc. with de Lellis as Prexy, Maurice Gould V. P. and Mal Chell-Frost keeper of the Treasury.

WE HEAR Mrs. Pond will run for ANA Boord, which meets with hearby approval from this corner. ANA will be lucky, indeed, to get her.

CINCINNATI CLUB hard at work to make May Convention an eventful one. Sol Kaplan, the general manager, expects record breaking attendance and promises a program worthy of such a large group.

OUR CONDOLENCES to Sol on the passing of his mother. I'll not soan forget the holiday dinner she prepered last spring.

THE DEATHS of B. A. Talmadge of Seattle and Lewis Granger of Ohio are distinct losses to numismatics. We had known both for many years and have been handling Mr. Talmadge's coins for the past two years. In fact, the May sale includes some of them.

KREISBERG TO SANTA ROSA for the Colifornia State Num. Ass'n Spring Convention via the sleeper—planes in that area tobooo for him.

MRS. K. GOES ALONG—She says if Ab gets lost among the Redwood trees she wants to be with him.

SAY, DID I MENTION, anywhere in this issue that we're having a big Auction Sale? Well, did we get your BID SHEET yet?

SPEAKING OF THE AUCTION, we urge bidders to request privilege of examining lots in which they are interested. Send references, if credit has not yet been established with us.

AUCTIONS ARE NOT APPROVALS. Bidders are expected to honar the cantract and pay promptly far lots awarded to them.

NATIONAL COIN WEEK activities scheduled for April 18 to 24. Many collectors dolling up exhibits with plastic holders, suitably inscribed (Yes, we can handle it for You).

JOE MOSS, ANA PRESIDENT visiting many clubs—seems to enjoy his work. We're hoppy about it especially os an indication of his complete recovery.

NORTHWEST COIN CLUB and Lehigh Valley Club planning spring exhibits.

AMAZING HOW many coin collectors have other hobbies as well. Stomps, Guns, Silver seem to lead.

AT THEIR REQUEST we list some interesting items in this issue from our ever-growing inventory.

NEXT ISSUE will contain o supplement listing hundreds of Large Cents.

NEW YORK CITY appointments being arranged for May 8th to 15th. If you want to see AK write us now.

EARLY BIDDERS for Moy Sole include Ken Dlder, Charley Ruby, Roy Wilson, L. G. Lodge. Bids now beginning to pour in. Keep 'em coming.

CO-INCIDENCE—MAY 2nd. The date of the first session of the auction is 10 years to the day since I cried the auction for Ohio State Convention—May 2nd, 1942 in Columbus, Ohio.

ENGLISH FESTIVAL SETS getting scarcer everyday. We originally sold them at $4.25, then $5.25, now hove ta get $10.00 and very few available. Small issue explains it.

PAPER MONEY, TOO keeps increasing in popularity as evidenced by bids coming in.

HOPE WE CAN BUY some nice materiol—collections or single coins (not a circulated Lincoln cent, please). Seriously interested in any duplicotes collectars moy have.

THIS IS THE TIME to sell those duplicates. You'll get a good price and help some other collector fill his wants.

YOU MAY ACQUIRE some of the coins you need if someone else sells his extra coins. It works both ways.

OUR JOB—to buy, to sell, at fair market values, with a little margin for our services. How about it?
